Policy created by	Compliance Team
Policy reviewed by	Principal Officer
Policy reviewed on	31 st Dec, 2023
Policy Approved by	Board of Directors
Policy approved on	4 th Jan, 2024

Version - 1.2

1. INTRODUCTION:

We should take appropriate steps to evolve an internal mechanism for proper maintenance and preservation of relevant records and information in a manner that allows easy and quick retrieval of data as and when requested by the competent authorities. Further, the records have to be maintained and preserved for a period five years from the date of cessation of the transactions between the Client and us.

We should formulate and implement the client identification program containing the requirements as laid down and such other additional requirements that it considers appropriate for a period of five years from the date of cessation of the transactions between the Client and us.

We should obtain a certification from their internal auditors that we have drawn up a policy on Anti Money Laundering Measures in compliance with the relevant laws, rules and instructions. In addition, in every quarterly report, the internal auditor must check and certify whether we have complied with the Policy so drawn up. Any deficiencies should be specifically pointed out in the report.

2. BACKGROUND FOR MAINTENANCE OF RECORDS:

We have incorporated under the provisions of the Companies Act, A depository Participant and stock broker shall also comply with the relevant provisions of the Companies Act with respect to preservation of records and archiving of records. In addition to the above, as a listed entity, we shall also comply with the policies for such record maintenance and archiving under Securities and Exchange Board of India ((Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (" SEBI LODR").

In terms of regulations 38 and 49 of the SEBI (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996 (hereinafter referred to as D&P Regulations, 1996), it is required to preserve the records and documents for a minimum period of 5 years. It is noticed that enforcement agencies like CBI, Police, and Crime Branch etc. have been collecting copies of the various records/documents during the course of their investigation. These original documents both in physical form and electronic form would be required by such enforcement agencies during trial of the case also.

In view of the above, notwithstanding anything contained in D&P Regulations, 1996, we are required to preserve the originals of the documents, both in electronic and physical form, copies of which have been taken by CBI, Police or any other enforcement agency during the course of any investigation till the trial is completed.

SEBI vide its circular SEBI/HO/MRD2/DDAP/CIR/P/2020/153 dated August 18, 2020 has informed regarding Corrigendum to Master Circular for Depositories dated October 25, 2019 on preservation of records. In terms of Regulations 54 and 66 of the SEBI (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 2018 (herein referred to as D&P Regulations, 2018) notified on October 03, 2018, Depositories and Depository Participants are required to preserve the records and documents for a minimum period of eight years.

Accordingly, in compliance to the provision of

- ✓ Regulations 9 of Listing Regulations,
- ✓ Prevention of Money-laundering (Maintenance of Records) Amendment Rules, 2015, Rule 9
- ✓ Regulations 54 and 66 of the SEBI (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 2018 and
- ✓ All the other Regulations as per Exchange and SEBI guidelines

We will preserve the records and documents for a minimum period of 8 years. We shall ensure compliance with the record keeping requirements contained in the SEBI Act, 1992, Rules and Regulations made there-under, PMLA as well as other relevant legislation, Rules, Regulations, Exchange Bye-laws and Circulars.

3. APPLICABILITY AND MODES OF PRESERVATION:

This Policy is applicable to all documents maintained in physical and electronic mode by us. The preservation of documents should be such as to ensure that there is no tampering, alteration, destruction or anything that endangers the content, authenticity, utility or accessibility of the documents. The documents not specifically covered under this policy shall be preserved and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the respective acts, rules, guidelines and regulations as applicable under which those documents are maintained.

4. ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

The respective Functional / Departmental heads of our organization shall be responsible for maintenance and preservation of documents in respect of the areas of operations falling under the charge of each of them, in terms of the Policy.

5. AUTHENTICITY:

Where a document is being maintained both in physical form and Electronic form, the authenticity with reference to the physical form should be considered for every purpose.

6. REVIEW OF POLICY:

Notwithstanding anything contained in this policy, we shall ensure compliance with any additional requirements as may be prescribed under any laws/regulations either existing or arising out of any amendment to such laws/regulations or otherwise and applicable to us from time to time. This Policy shall be subject to review, if necessary. Any change/amendments in Applicable Laws with regard to maintenance and preservation of documents and records shall be deemed to be covered in this Policy without any review. Any change / amendments to this Policy shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

Change in the Policy will be adopted as and when required by the company and is binding on all the Staff/Employees/and Directors of the Company.
